The Painless Speedlight DoF Plug-in! Many of you know that this time last year we created a concept and built a plug-in that enabled speedlight photographers to simultaneously do DOF and exposure compensation in camera - and it became a very popular plug-in in our community. To introduce the concept, this video will guide you through the "Adobe Speedlight Plugin Concept Video" that we made in the past. We'll explain how this concept applies to DOF control, let's you do exposure compensation in camera, mimics aperture and allows you to take photos with no blur. Plus you can explore on the test case we built and explore the features the plugin provides: - A dof preview mode - the plugin shows you the DOF of the actual lens - you can select your target distance and adjust the amount of DOF blur (using the actual aperture) - An easy exposure correction mode - Works with speedlights The Painless Speedlight DoF Plug-in!
